German Language Immersion Programme
December 2003 in Münster, Germany

The city of Münster is widely known for her charm and beauty. The city looks back at a history and tradition of over 1200 years and is also home to Germany’s third biggest university, the Westfälische Wilhelms-Universität Münster. People from the surrounding areas and neighbouring Netherlands visit Münster for the excellent shopping opportunities, great hospitality and special ambiance of ‘Germany’s capital of the bicycle’.

Would you like to join the trip to Münster?

1 This price is subject to ‘minor’ change as the final number of participants and the programme need to be taken into consideration. The final price will not be higher!
Upon arrival at the train station or airport in Münster, participants will be met by their host families. For the duration of the entire language immersion, the families will provide a home for the students.

The fee of 920 Euro* includes:

- 21 day-home stay with room and board in selected German host families
- Lunch at the university canteen from Monday – Friday
- 50 intensive German language lessons with experienced German as a Foreign Language teacher
- Special student ticket for public transportation by bus in Münster
- Excursions to nearby cities, romantic castles, museums etc. in the afternoons and on weekends

Breakfast and dinner will be taken with the families while lunch will be in the Mensa (university canteen). From Monday to Friday, participants will have 50 hours of intensive German language classes at the Language Centre of the Westfälische Wilhelms-Universität.

Lessons will help students to deepen their understanding of the German language and culture. All participants will have the unique chance to explore and enhance their skills in the target language inside and outside the classroom.

Additionally, there will be a programme offering interesting afternoon and weekend excursions to nearby cities, romantic castles and museums. The details are yet to be finalized.

The fact that this tour takes place during the Winter month means that we will have to work out a new and attractive programme that goes well with the season. Furthermore, it needs to be stressed that warm clothes are a must for all participants!

* (Note: The price is subject to change depending on the number of participants and the programme for excursions and other extra activities.)
