The Japanese Language Proficiency Test organised by the Japan Foundation and the Japan Educational Exchanges and Services; will be conducted on Sunday, 2nd December 2007 by the Japanese Cultural Society in Singapore as shown in http://www.jcss.org.sg/test.html.

The test fee in Singapore is as follows;

- Level 1: S$36.00
- Level 2: S$30.00
- Level 3: S$25.00
- Level 4: S$20.00

2 recent passport-size photos (identical) and a photocopy of ID or passport are also required on application.

To help you in your preparation, materials are available from the NUS library and bookshops such as Kinokuniya. Sample past-year exam questions can also be downloaded from http://momo.jpf.go.jp/jlpt/e/result_e.html.

NUS students who wish to apply for JLPT this year may register with Qian Li of The Japanese Studies Society (JSS) by email (qian_li@yahoo.com) before 25 August. Please state your Name, Contact Number, JLPT Level (you wish to undertake) and your Faculty/Year in the email. The JSS will be making the forms available from 27 August to 31 August, during which students are to collect and return completed forms with all necessary materials. The application forms are chargeable at S$2.00 per set. Please be informed that JSS will not be accepting applications after 31 August and students will then be required to make their way down to the Japanese Cultural Society to complete their registration themselves.
